Matthew 21:18-22

Context:

(e.g. What kind of writing is this? Do we know who wrote it and why? How does it connect to the passages before and after?)

Observation:

(e.g. What sticks out to you? What do you like? What challenges you? What do you learn about God? What do you learn about people? Do you have any questions?)

Meaning:

(How would you summarise the message of this passage in one sentence?)

Application:

(E.g. Sin to confess? Promise to claim? Attitude to change? Command to obey? Example to follow? Prayer to pray? Error to avoid? Truth to believe? Something to praise God for?)

Extra Questions

Read Jeremiah 8:12-13

- What is the tone of this passage? What does this show about God's posture towards the Israelites in the Old Testament?

Read John 15:1-11

- What echoes of Matthew 21:18-22 do we hear in this passage?

- What kind of 'fruit' does Jesus look for here?

Reaching the lost together

A significant theme in Matthew 21:18-22 is prayer for the lost. How would you describe your prayer life when it comes to non-christian friends and family? And for the wider world? Are you feeling encouraged, discouraged, committed, lazy, or anything in between?

How can what we've seen today encourage you to keep praying for the lost?
