

Weekly Reading Notes

6-2-22

Extra Readings

Scripture: Matthew 15:1-20

Observation:

(e.g. What sticks out to you? What do you think is the main point? What do you learn about God? What do you learn about people? Do you have any questions?)

Application:

(e.g. Sin to confess? Promise to claim? Attitude to change? Command to obey? Example to follow? Prayer to pray? Error to avoid? Truth to believe? Something to praise God for?)

Prayer:

You can use the following to further reflect on the passage / sermon.

Isaiah 29:13-14

What did the Israelites who lived in Jerusalem have a problem with?

As you think over your own life, are there areas where you're simply "obeying" on the outside? If so, what are they and why do you think this is happening?

Read Matthew 23:23-28.

How does Jesus feel about people making a show out of their devotion to God?

Read Mark 7:1-23

At first glance, what similarities or differences do you notice between Mark and Matthew's account above (i.e words/statements, overall focus, characters involved)?

Why do suppose Matthew has crafted this event the way he has?
What might he want us to take away from it?

Weekly Reading Notes

6-2-22

Extra Readings

Scripture: Matthew 15:1-20

Observation:

(e.g. What sticks out to you? What do you think is the main point? What do you learn about God? What do you learn about people? Do you have any questions?)

Application:

(e.g. Sin to confess? Promise to claim? Attitude to change? Command to obey? Example to follow? Prayer to pray? Error to avoid? Truth to believe? Something to praise God for?)

Prayer:

You can use the following to further reflect on the passage / sermon.

Isaiah 29:13-14

What did the Israelites who lived in Jerusalem have a problem with?

As you think over your own life, are there areas where you're simply "obeying" on the outside? If so, what are they and why do you think this is happening?

Read Matthew 23:23-28.

How does Jesus feel about people making a show out of their devotion to God?

Read Mark 7:1-23

At first glance, what similarities or differences do you notice between Mark and Matthew's account above (i.e words/statements, overall focus, characters involved)?

Why do suppose Matthew has crafted this event the way he has? What might he want us to take away from it?